

AQHA VERSATILITY RANCH HORSE
GENERAL RULES

- * All horses must be registered with the American Quarter Horse Association
- * Each exhibitor must have current individual membership in the American Quarter Horse Association or American Quarter Horse Youth Association
- * No horses less than three years of age may be exhibited
- * No hoof polish
- * No braided or banded manes
- * No Tail extensions
- * Trimming the inside of ears is discouraged
- * Trimming the bridle path is allowed, as well as the fetlocks or any excessive (long) facial hair
- * Open competitors can show two horses so the Ranch Riding class will be performed individually.

TACK AND EQUIPMENT

- * A good working outfit is encouraged and should count over silver-inlaid equipment. Silver on bridles and saddles is discouraged.
- * Refer to guidelines listed in Sections 442 and 443 of the AQHA Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations regarding the use of bits and other equipment.

ELIGIBLE HORSE/RIDER COMBINATIONS

- * Open Division for all horses, regardless of ownership or trainer. Open competitors can show two horses.
- * Amateur Division is for exhibitors who fulfill the amateur requirements under Rule 403, amateur eligibility.
- * Novice Amateur – for Amateur Exhibitors cannot have earned 25 points in halter or 25 points in performance in any division. Points are recorded on the Exhibitor; not on the horse's performance record.
- * Youth Division is for exhibitors 18 years of age or younger (as of Jan 1) as long as they are the recorded owner or exhibit a horse owned by his/her immediate family members. Youth exhibitors may also show horses owned by a ranch where the exhibitor's family is a full time employee (for six months or more)
